Shall the state of Vermont bar the door to progress?

The automobile seems to have some friends in the legislature after all.

The cyclone seems to have been more disastrous than the revolution in Cuba.

The Standard Oil company now realizes that the people have their own standard as well.

There may be a smattering of comfort to the last two cattle commissioners that they were not asked to resign or were not summarily dismissed, as was their colleague a short time ago.

It is advisable to suspend criticism of former Cattle Commissioner George H. Terrill for the present, inasmuch as he became a commissioner only last January. His friends say that his was a case of "being caught in bad company."

The betting odds of four to one on Hughes over Hearst remind of the betting odds on the Chicago National league baseball club over the American club recently. Yet the American team won out, which should serve to keep the Hughes-ites from becoming too puffed up. Betting odds are an uncertain thing on which to base one's confidence.

Worthy of special mention is the quarter-century anniversary last week of the Bradford "Opinion," an excellent newspaper from all standpoints. The contemporary is one of the best weekly journals of the entire state, has an up-to-date editorial column, an abundance of news matter from its territory

DIMES

Some of our depositors are saving from $5 to $6 each month by taking one of our little pocket banks and dropping into it every dime they get in change.

$5 deposited each month would amount to $60.62 at the end of a year—and you would never miss the change.

This is a good plan. It will help you save. Will you try it? Ask for one of the little banks.

We pay 3 1-2 per cent interest, compounded semi-annually.

and the state generally, and in typographical appearance is a slick piece of work. A great measure of The Opinion's success is due to the interest it takes in the home town, for the betterment of which it always strives. There will be a great many pleasant anniversaries for such a journal as it is.

WAS ONLY HALF TOLD.

Instead of having an ameliorating effect, the report of the Chittenden county grand jury on the dismissed meat transactions of the state of Vermont through its officials confirms and adds to the first knowledge of the affair. It is going from bad to worse. Nevertheless, let there be no shrinking from the issue. The grand jury finds fifty and more sales of condemned cattle for food purposes and with the understanding that the meat was to be used for that end; to give the exact wording of the grand jury report, "that a portion of said carcasses have been sold for the purposes and with the expectation that the same were to be used for food purposes; and a portion of the same for the purpose of being rendered into fertilizer." Such a state of affairs is rotten. It makes no difference that the state officials were thereby endeavoring to make a sharp deal for the benefit of the state; that cannot be said with good grace in palliation of the act. Every decent citizen will hope that Attorney General Fitts will spare no pains to have this matter sifted to the bottom.

To this end there certainly will be no sparing of the companies which are alleged to be concerned in the transactions and the legal weapon recently placed in the attorney general's hand will be used to the limit.

BEAUTIFUL SHOES

$3.00—$3.50—$4.00.

You are invited to inspect our display of the new Autumn Shoe Fashions. Particularly do we direct attention to the new "Dorothy Dodd" Shoes. Not only will they appeal to your artistic sense, but the very stamp on the sole is our double assurance that the quality is honest through and through. And think what this means when, because of the high cost of leather, so many shoes have been deliberately cheapened to deceive you into the belief that you are getting former values at old prices!

Against this deception the very prestige of the "Dorothy Dodd" trademark is your protection. Its makers cannot afford to lower the standard by which it has achieved the most phenomenal shoe success ever known. If you would have prettier and more stylish feet, let us fit you with a pair of these new "Dorothy Dodd" Shoes. They come in all styles and leathers, and for all services.
